THE SOCIAL QUESTION

The First Presbyterian Church Well Attended.

SOME STARTLING STATEMENTS

The "Meeting for Men Only" Attracted a Very Large Audience On Sunday Afternoon—There Were Some Startling Statements Made and They Are the Subject of General Comment Today.

There was a large audience present at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to hear Detective William G. Huckle deliver his lecture to men only. Prominent in the audience were well known business men, clergymen, hotel keepers, saloon keepers, city officials, policemen, physicians, mechanics and workmen, in fact men from any and every avenue of life, some attracted by the desire to do good, others by curiosity and no doubt a large number to hear sensational and startling developments.

The Young Men's Christian association quartette, Professor Gotschall, Mr. Frank George, Professor Swan and Arthur Allison, rendered a couple of selections of appropriate song service in a very pleasing manner, and Reverend Lee led in prayer. Secretary Morris, of the Young Men's Christian association, then read the seventh chapter of First Corinthians, after which the speaker was introduced.

Detective Huckle is an earnest, effective speaker, and he carried his audience with him, although he hit some of those present very hard at times. Talking along the line of social purity he said: "I doubt if there be twenty men present in all this vast audience," and then made explanation of his assertion by stating that the large majority of men argued that houses of ill-fame were a necessary evil. He declared this statement pernicious and false, and made further statements showing that many men, when pushed to the wall on solid argument, on this one question, must admit that they were not manly in this particular.

In opening his address, the speaker read the eighth verse of the fifth chapter of First Timothy, and made brief comments thereon, showing that it is a man's bounden duty to support and care for his own family and not throw his means away in profligacy and with lewd women. He asked all Christians present to pray that he might say nothing unseemly or unnecessary, but simply make it his one aim to do and work for right. Following this thought he said:

"I am deeply in earnest on this subject of personal purity. Moses commanded purity. Paul also demanded it, and the Blessed Savior taught and demanded it. We are here to talk and work along this line, and to help East Liverpool and her citizens. Purity must begin in your home life, and if that home life be pure and clean, we have great hopes of public life being all right."

The speaker made the statement that life in the potteries of this or any other city is full of terrible temptations to the female employees, and quoted a physician of East Liverpool as saying that the temptations are simply awful in this city. He further asserted that cases had occurred in the city in which good and true women had found it necessary to leave certain potteries, so encompassed and surrounded were they by evil influences.

While admiring and upholding true Christian ministers and true Christian church men, he spoke with intense bitterness of men in church who used the church and religion as a cloak under which to carry on their lecherous and awful sinful work, and cited cases which came under his own personal observation in England.

The address caused much comment on the streets and throughout the city yesterday and today. Three councilmen and three ministers came forward to the platform at the conclusion of the address and warmly commended Mr. Huckle and urged him to renewed efforts in his advocacy of social purity.

Rev. Taggart made an earnest closing prayer and Rev. Huston pronounced the benediction. Rev. O'Meara was present and came on the platform at the close of the services and warmly commended Mr. Huckle. Revs. Whitehead and Huffer were absent from the city, speaking at other points.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Meeting at the First M. E. Church Next Thursday Night.

There will be a meeting held at the First M. E. church on Thursday night, Nov. 14, in the interests of social purity and good citizenship, called by the pastor's association of this city. Reverend Huston will preside, and ad-

resses will be made by William G. Huckle, Reverend Whitehead, Reverend Lee and Reverend Taggart. A cordial invitation is extended to every one, ladies and gentlemen, to attend. No admission will be charged and no tickets issued.

A NEW SYSTEM.

Weather Forecasts to Be Distributed With the Mail.

The government is arranging to distribute information concerning the weather through the postal department. Every letter, in addition to the stamp giving the date and hour of receipt, will be stamped with the weather probabilities for the next 24 hours. The stamp will be made so that it can be given briefly, but will nevertheless tell the story. The prediction will be telegraphed to postmasters every morning and all matter will be stamped. The date above the prediction will prevent confusion as to when the forecast applies.

IN A HARD WAY.

The Sewer Pipe Plants Are Almost All Shut Down.

Almost all the sewer pipe plants in the combination are shut down, and there is little prospect of any of them starting before spring comes to brighten trade. Many yards are stacked with finished product ready for the market, but there is no demand for pipe, and a great many men are out of employment. The Royal works at Urichville are still in operation, but it is thought the force there will soon be given a vacation. Little is expected in the way of improved conditions until after the winter is over.

A SUCCESSFUL COMPOSER.

Charley Tarr Makes a Ten-Strike on a Two Step.

When the Brooklyn exposition managers asked not long ago for a march that would be made the favorite music at the big show Charley Tarr, the well-known young musician of this city, entered the lists, and has been informed that his composition was accepted. The march bears the title, "The Printer's Devil Two Step," and is said by those who have heard it to be a meritorious composition. There were 30 other competitors, and the friends of the young man here are proud of his achievement.

MCKINLEY'S PICTURE.

How a Merchant Had the Laugh On His Guest.

A prominent business man of the city had a guest last week who is a Democrat, and in honor of the late Republican victory he secured a portrait of Governor McKinley, and hanging it where the guest could see it immediately after he arose in the morning, left him to his dreams. When the visitor arose he was filled with wrath, but his friend soon quieted his anger, and placed the political situation so plainly before him that he acknowledged that the next president would be McKinley or Reed.

APPLES AND BLOSSOMS.

A Curiosity That Is Attracting Attention at Industry.

When Manager Gilchrist, of the telephone company, was in industry on Saturday working on the lines he saw something in the way of an apple tree that almost made his hair stand on end. A large apple tree was standing by the roadside, and, in spite of the fact that the crop for this year had not yet been picked, the branches were filled with blossoms well developed and pretty. The tree is a curiosity that is attracting many people from the surrounding country.

SAW THE SHOOTING.

And Now Fireman Tom Sally Is a Witness.

Fireman Tom Sally, connected with the government snag boat Woodruff, was summoned to Cincinnati by a telegram, and left for that place on Saturday night. One day last spring Sally was walking along the street in Cincinnati when he witnessed a shooting scrape. The victim died, and the man who did the shooting having been arrested was placed on trial today. The fireman is one of the most important witnesses, and was badly wanted by the prosecutor.

Postponed The Case.

The case of a local publication against Ben Little for advertising was postponed again in the court of Squire Rose this morning. It will be tried tomorrow. The suit was entered several months ago, and has been postponed a number of times.

Moving to Town.

Mrs. Frank McCune, who has been a resident of the city for some time, will move her household goods here, from Braddock and locate permanently.

DANIEL WANTED MEAT

At One Place He Got It But At Another

TWO MEN THREW HIM OUT

A Little Incident In Which Dan Cochran Figured Conspicuously—The Police Got An Individual Who Had a Billy and a Jag.

Dan Corcoran, dissatisfied with remaining in obscurity for so long a time, concluded on Saturday night to make himself a little more conspicuous than he has been for several months, and as a result Daniel spent yesterday in jail.

Not knowing what other course to adopt, Daniel went to a West Market street butcher shop and demanded in a peremptory manner that he be given some meat. Not desiring to precipitate a row and seeing that the visitor was wearing an ugly gleam in his eye, the butcher gave him what he wanted, and after a vast deal of persuasion succeeded in convincing him that he should leave the place. Although he had the meat, Daniel was not more than half satisfied with the termination of his experiment, and entered the Norris butcher shop in the Diamond, but there he met with bitter disappointment. With the air of a lord he walked into the place and demanded a piece of sausage, but he didn't get it. The demand was accompanied by all sorts of threats as to what he would do if the meat was refused, but they didn't scare the man behind the counter. Now that was something Dan had not expected, and he arose in his wrath and announced that he would scatter that whole store and its occupants in the Diamond, and something happened. Dan didn't know what was going on, but in a twinkling he was grasped by two strong hands and before he knew it he was standing on the pavement, while the laughter of half a dozen spectators mingled with the gentle patter of the rain. Officer Meador was there to receive Daniel, the patrol was called, and in a few minutes the hero of the butcher shops was in the quarters he knows so well at city hall.

The mayor had Daniel brought before him this morning, and he promised to pay his fine, but refused to plead guilty, whereupon he was sent back to jail until he could change his mind.

The only other arrest made by the police gave his name as Thomas McLee. He was very drunk on Second street on Saturday night, and wanted to annihilate some one. With his jag and a big black jack he walked the street until Officer Jennings got after him, and then he ran up an alley. Officer Earl happened to be at the other end of the alley, and when McLee appeared he was placed under arrest. The patrol was called, and the prisoner given a ride. Yesterday morning he told Mayor Gilbert that he did not remember anything of what he had been doing, but he guessed it was right if the police said so, and was willing to pay. It cost McLee $9.75, but he paid the bill and went away a sadder man.

The lesson which McLee was taught at city hall did not do him a great deal of good, and he was in another row last night. It was at a house near the power house, and the noise was so great that the patrol was called, but the bird had flown. McLee was informed that the officers were coming, and quietly disappeared.

HOW'S THE LAW?

Can a Dealer in Firearms Sell the Same to Boys?

A prominent professional man of East Liverpool received an anonymous letter by mail the other day, telling him that his son, a youth of some fourteen summers and several winters, was the owner of a revolver, and that he was in the habit of handling the deadly weapon in a very careless manner. The father has been allowing his son a fair share of pocket money, in the belief that the youngster had a right to the same; but had no idea that the youngster's thoughts ran to firearms, blood and slaughter, and he was considerably surprised to discover that the youth was armed in such a manner, and he now desires to know whether or not the laws of Ohio allow a dealer in firearms to sell deadly weapons to customers of such tender years.

WANT A WALK.

West End People Have a Gigantic Grievance.

West End people are backing a grievance by a gigantic kick, and want council to hear their plea. When the dil was made at the culvert where the street car went over last summer the board walk was taken away, and now there is nothing to keep the pedestrians out of the mud except a single board. In speaking of the matter to a reporter for the News Review, a resident who must walk that way every day, remarked that the city might have a damage suit on its hands for some unfortunate might fall off the walk and be drowned in the mud. Calcutta road people also object.

When the board walks were taken up early in the year the people say they were deprived of their property, and think the city should substitute a cheap walk until the improvement now in progress is finished. One resident suggested that they raise a gum boot fund, and provide all residents with rubbers for use during the winter.

EARTHENWARE IN IT.

One of the Reasons Why the Deficit Is So Great.

The New York Press of this morning has the following editorially: "While the McKinley bill was in unhampered operation it easily produced $200,000,000 of revenue a year. It was chiefly attacked in its wool, cotton, agricultural and earthenware schedules. The difference between the income which these schedules used to give and that which they give now will just about provide the money with which to stop the Cleveland deficit and pay the interest on the Cleveland debt. It is in the industries which the old duties under these schedules were meant to protect that the worst consequences of the Cleveland policy of debt and destruction have been felt. These facts suggest to the Republican majority of the next congress the lines of tariff revision on which it should go to work."

POOR WHEAT.

The Fields Are By No Means in Good Condition.

The crop report for this week says: The area of winter wheat sown this fall for the harvest of next year is about the same as that sown last fall, being but one per cent less. The present condition of the plant is very low, being but 55 per cent of a fair average. The condition of soil at time of seeding was bad in 14 counties of the state; only fair in 30 counties and good in 35 counties. General drought following wheat seeding is the cause of present low condition. Many fields are reported as not up and much that is up seems to be making little or no growth and is weak and thin on the ground. Many fields are brown and spotted.

SPRUNG A LEAK.

An Accident Almost Sinks the Water Maiden.

The Water Maiden, the small excursion steamer that has been tied up at the Broadway wharf since the close of the season, was in a bad way yesterday. It was discovered none too soon that an accident had started some of the planks in the hold, and the boat was rapidly filling with water. The steam pumps were started immediately after the discovery was made, and by dint of hard labor the water was pumped out, and the leak repaired. The boat is now as sound as ever.

THE SCOTIA BURNED.

A Well Known Steamer Destroyed at Cincinnati.

The steamer Scotia, together with two other valuable boats, was destroyed by fire at the Cincinnati wharf on Saturday, although every possible effort was made to save them. The boats were lying together and assistance could not get near enough to be effective because of the low water in the river. The Scotia was a former Pittsburgh boat well known in this city. For years it was in the Pittsburgh-Cincinnati trade, and many times has it touched at the local wharf.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

The Laymen's Bible Society Will Conduct Meetings.

The Laymen's Bible society, a non-sectarian organization of the city, is arranging for revival services to be held in the First U. P. church, beginning the first of December. The services will be conducted by J. W. Deane, an evangelist whose home is in Philadelphia, and will be continued for three weeks. The society extend a general invitation for all people to attend the meetings, and hear the gentlemen speak. He has a splendid reputation as an orator.

More Contagion.

The health authorities were informed today that another case of contagion had appeared in the city; this time on Walnut street. The unfortunate victim is a child of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Taylor, and the disease is scarlet fever. This makes two contagious diseases in town at present, the other being diphtheria on Second street.

M'NICOL VS. M'KENTY

The Court Asked to Change an Agreement.

OUTCOME OF J. F. STEELE'S CASE

The Principals Had an Understanding at That Time, But Conditions Have Changed Since Then, and D. E. McNicol Wants a New Deal—A Wellsville Case.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Nov. 11.—The principal case filed in court today was that of D. E. McNicol, of East Liverpool, against R. L. McKenty, of the same place.

The petition asks the court to change a part of an agreement entered into by these parties on Aug. 22, 1891. It states that John F. Steele was indebted to McNicol in the sum of $950 and to McKenty for $450. Steele had assigned to McNicol $4,000 worth of stock in the Wittena Building and Loan association, and a mortgage had been given by Steele to the association for $4000 on lot 540 in Liverpool. This land McKenty bought at sheriff's sale subject to the payment of the mortgage. By the agreement the stock in the association was transferred from McNicol to McKenty the latter agreeing to pay the proceeds of the stock on final settlement to McNicol. In drawing the agreement this latter clause was made that the proceeds be distributed between them, and McKenty now refuses to change it. The stock was surrendered and cancelled in June 1893, and the proceeds amounted to $736, for which judgment is asked.

Dora A. Green, of Wellsville, brought suit a few minutes before noon against Robert Welch and the city of Wellsville. In October she got two judgments against Welch for $300 each, but she has been unable to collect a dollar on them. Last January Welch entered suit against Wellsville for $5,000, and the case was listed for trial this afternoon. If he gets anything out of the case the plaintiff in this last action wants her bill paid from that before it reaches the hands of Welch.

Alex B. Allison today got a judgment against Wallace Allison for $203.37, and an order of sale of mortgaged property was issued.

A marriage license was issued today to C. A. Purinton and Miss Cora Cunningham, of East Liverpool. George Kountz and Miss Cora Stambaugh, of Homeworth, were also allowed to wed.

CHURCH NOTICES.

Reverend Huston Makes a Happy Hit on the Custom.

Every minister of the present day knows what it is to be bothered and worried each Sunday over a mass of announcements, some of interest, some of less interest, and some entirely unnecessary. The pastor of the First M. E. church made a happy hit over this practice previous to the morning sermon yesterday. After reading quite a number of announcements he paused and said:

"I've missed or mislaid one of the announcements I should have made. But is it any wonder that I should do so? Out of the great number that are laid out before me for publication each Sunday, I should not be surprised if I miss a dozen or fifteen."

There was an audible smile on the face of the congregation.

THROUGH A WINDOW.

Damage Wrought by a Cat at a Grocery Store.

As James Johnson and wife were walking along Fifth street on their way home from church last evening they heard the crash of breaking glass at the store of T. B. Murphy, and a big hole appeared in a window, through which jumped a large cat. The animal had been locked in the store without the knowledge of the proprietor or any of the clerks, and in wandering about through the window had knocked over a pickle bottle. The bottle went through the window and the feline, seeing a chance for escape, jumped out and scampered away.

ARRESTED THE MURDERERS.

Eleven Kurds to Answer for the Death of Frank Lenz.

A dispatch from Constantinople says that 11 Kurds charged with the murder of Frank Lenz, the wheelman, have been arrested and taken to Erzerum, where they will be tried in the presence of the British consul, who, in the absence of an American official, will do all he can to see that justice is done. W. A. Sachtleben, the St. Louis wheelman, who has been searching through Armenia for some trace of his friend Lenz has been untiring in his efforts, and has at last had these men arrested, hoping that they are the guilty parties.

THE SOCIAL QUESTION

SOME STARTLING STATEMENTS

The "Meeting for Men Only" Attracted a Very Large Audience On Sunday Afternoon—There Were Some Startling Statements Made and They Are the Subject of General Comment Today.

There was a large audience present at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to hear Detective William G. Huckle deliver his lecture to men only. Prominent in the audience were well known business men, clergymen, hotel keepers, saloon keepers, city officials, policemen, physicians, mechanics and workmen, in fact men from any and every avenue of life, some attracted by the desire to do good, others by curiosity and no doubt a large number to hear sensational and startling developments.

The Young Men's Christian association quartette, Professor Gotschall, Mr. Frank George, Professor Swan and Arthur Allison, rendered a couple of selections of appropriate song service in a very pleasing manner, and Reverend Lee led in prayer. Secretary Morris, of the Young Men's Christian association, then read the seventh chapter of First Corinthians, after which the speaker was introduced.

Detective Huckle is an earnest, effective speaker, and he carried his audience with him, although he hit some of those present very hard at times. Talking along the line of social purity he said: "I doubt if there be twenty manly men present in all this vast audience," and then made explanation of his assertion by stating that the large majority of men argued that houses of ill-fame were a necessary evil. He declared this statement pernicious and false, and made further statements showing that many men, when pushed to the wall on solid argument, on this one question, must admit that they were not manly in this particular.

In opening his address, the speaker read the eighth verse of the fifth chapter of First Timothy, and made brief comments thereon, showing that it is a man's bounden duty to support and care for his own family and not throw his means away in profligacy and with lewd women. He asked all Christians present to pray that he might say nothing unseemly or unnecessary, but simply make it his one aim to do and work for right. Following this thought he said:

"I am deeply in earnest on this subject of personal purity. Moses commanded purity. Paul also demanded it, and the Blessed Savior taught and demanded it. We are here to talk and work along this line, and to help East Liverpool and her citizens. Purity must begin in your home life, and if that home life be pure and clean, we have great hopes of public life being all right."

The speaker made the statement that life in the potteries of this or any other city is full of terrible temptations to the female employees, and quoted a physician of East Liverpool as saying that the temptations are simply awful in this city. He further asserted that cases had occurred in the city in which good and true women had found it necessary to leave certain potteries, so encompassed and surrounded were they by evil influences.

While admiring and upholding true Christian ministers and true Christian church men, he spoke with intense bitterness of men in church who used the church and religion as a cloak under which to carry on their lecherous and awful sinful work, and cited cases which came under his own personal observation in England.

The address caused much comment on the streets and throughout the city yesterday and today. Three councilmen and three ministers came forward to the platform at the conclusion of the address and warmly commended Mr. Huckle and urged him to renewed efforts in his advocacy of social purity.

Rev. Taggart made an earnest closing prayer and Rev. Huston pronounced the benediction. Rev. O'Meara was present and came on the platform at the close of the services and warmly commended Mr. Huckle. Revs. Whitehead and Huffer were absent from the city, speaking at other points.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Meeting at the First M. E. Church Next Thursday Night.

There will be a meeting held at the First M. E. church on Thursday night, Nov. 14, in the interests of social purity and good citizenship, called by the pastor's association of this city. Reverend Huston will preside, and ad-

resses will be made by William G. Huckle, Reverend Whitehead, Reverend Lee and Reverend Taggart. A cordial invitation is extended to every one, ladies and gentlemen, to attend. No admission will be charged and no tickets issued.

SAW THE SHOOTING.

And Now Fireman Tom Sally Is a Witness.

Firemen Tom Sally, connected with the government snag boat Woodruff, was summoned to Cincinnati by a telegram, and left for that place on Saturday night. One day last spring Sally was walking along the street in Cincinnati when he witnessed a shooting scrape. The victim died, and the man who did the shooting having been arrested was placed on trial today. The fireman is one of the most important witnesses, and was badly wanted by the prosecutor.

Postponed The Case.

The case of a local publication against Ben Little for advertising was postponed again in the court of Squire Rose this morning. It will be tried tomorrow. The suit was entered several months ago, and has been postponed a number of times.

One resident suggested that they raise a gum boot fund, and provide all residents with rubbers for use during the winter.

EARTHENWARE IN IT.

One of the Reasons Why the Deficit Is So Great.

The New York Press of this morning has the following editorially: "While the McKinley bill was in unwhipped operation it easily produced $200,000,000 of revenue a year. It was chiefly attacked in its wool, cotton, agricultural and earthenware schedules. The difference between the income which these schedules used to give and that which they give now will just about provide the money with which to stop the Cleveland deficit and pay the interest on the Cleveland debt. It is in the industries which the old duties under these schedules were meant to protect that the worst consequences of the Cleveland policy of debt and destruction have been felt. These facts suggest to the Republican majority of the next congress the lines of tariff revision on which it should go to work."

POOR WHEAT.

The Fields Are By No Means in Good Condition.

The crop report for this week says: The area of winter wheat sown this fall for the harvest of next year is about the same as that sown last fall, being but one per cent less. The present condition of the plant is very low, being but 55 per cent of a fair average. The condition of soil at time of seeding was bad in 14 counties of the state; only fair in 30 counties and good in 35 counties. General drought following wheat seeding is the cause of present low condition. Many fields are reported as not up and much that is up seems to be making little or no growth and is weak and thin on the ground. Many fields are brown and spotted.

SPRUNG A LEAK.

An Accident Almost Sinks the Water Maiden.

The Water Maiden, the small excursion steamer that has been tied up at the Broadway wharf since the close of the season, was in a bad way yesterday. It was discovered none too soon that an accident had started some of the planks in the hold, and the boat was rapidly filling with water. The steam pumps were started immediately after the discovery was made, and by dint of hard labor the water was pumped out, and the leak repaired. The boat is now as sound as ever.

THE SCOTIA BURNED.

A Well Known Steamer Destroyed at Cincinnati.

The steamer Scotia, together with two other valuable boats, was destroyed by fire at the Cincinnati wharf on Saturday, although every possible effort was made to save them. The boats were lying together and assistance could not get near enough to be effective because of the low water in the river. The Scotia was a former Pittsburgh boat well known in this city. For years it was in the Pittsburgh-Cincinnati trade, and many times has it touched at the local wharf.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

The Laymen's Bible Society Will Conduct Meetings.

The Laymen's Bible society, a non-sectarian organization of the city, is arranging for revival services to be held in the First U. P. church, beginning the first of December. The services will be conducted by J. W. Deane, an evangelist whose home is in Philadelphia, and will be continued for three weeks. The society extend a general invitation for all people to attend the meetings, and hear the gentleman speak. He has a splendid reputation as an orator.

More Contagion.

The health authorities were informed today that another case of contagion had appeared in the city; this time on Walnut street. The unfortunate victim is a child of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Taylor, and the disease is scarlet fever. This makes two contagious diseases in town at present, the other being diphtheria on Second street.

M'NICOL VS. M'KENTY

The Court Asked to Change an Agreement.

The Principals Had an Understanding at That Time, But Conditions Have Changed Since Then, and D. E. McNicol Wants a New Deal—A Wellsville Case.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Nov. 11.—The principal case filed in court today was that of D. E. McNicol, of East Liverpool, against R. L. McKenty, of the same place.

The petition asks the court to change a part of an agreement entered into by these parties on Aug. 22, 1891. It states that John F. Steele was indebted to McNicol in the sum of $950 and to McKenty for $450. Steele had assigned to McNicol $4,000 worth of stock in the Wittenau Building and Loan association, and a mortgage had been given by Steele to the association for $4000 on lot 540 in Liverpool. This land McKenty bought at sheriff's sale subject to the payment of the mortgage. By the agreement the stock in the association was transferred from McNicol to McKenty the latter agreeing to pay the proceeds of the stock on final settlement to McNicol. In drawing the agreement this latter clause was made that the proceeds be distributed between them, and McKenty now refuses to change it. The stock was surrendered and cancelled in June 1893, and the proceeds amounted to $736, for which judgment is asked.

Dora A. Green, of Wellsville, brought suit a few minutes before noon against Robert Welch and the city of Wellsville. In October she got two judgments against Welch for $300 each, but she has been unable to collect a dollar on them. Last January Welch entered suit against Wellsville for $5,000, and the case was listed for trial this afternoon. If he gets anything out of the case the plaintiff in this last action wants her bill paid from that before it reaches the hands of Welch.

Alex B. Allison today got a judgment against Wallace Allison for $263.37, and an order of sale of mortgaged property was issued.

A marriage license was issued today to C. A. Purinton and Miss Cora Cunningham, of East Liverpool. George Kountz and Miss Cora Stambaugh, of Homeworth, were also allowed to wed.

CHURCH NOTICES.

Reverend Huston Makes a Happy Hit on the Custom.

Every minister of the present day knows what it is to be bothered and worried each Sunday over a mass of announcements, some of interest, some of less interest, and some entirely unnecessary. The pastor of the First M. E. church made a happy hit over this practice previous to the morning sermon yesterday. After reading quite a number of announcements he paused and said:

"I've missed or mislaid one of the announcements I should have made. But is it any wonder that I should do so? Out of the great number that are laid out before me for publication each Sunday, I should not be surprised if I miss a dozen or fifteen."

There was an audible smile on the face of the congregation.

THROUGH A WINDOW.

Damage Wrought by a Cat at a Grocery Store.

As James Johnson and wife were walking along Fifth street on their way home from church last evening they heard the crash of breaking glass at the store of T. B. Murphy, and a big hole appeared in a window, through which jumped a large cat. The animal had been locked in the store without the knowledge of the proprietor or any of the clerks, and in wandering about through the window had knocked over a pickle bottle. The bottle went through the window and the feline, seeing a chance for escape, jumped out and scampered away.

ARRESTED THE MURDERERS.

Eleven Kurds to Answer for the Death of Frank Lenz.

A dispatch from Constantinople says that 11 Kurds charged with the murder of Frank Lenz, the wheelman, have been arrested and taken to Erzeroum, where they will be tried in the presence of the British consul, who, in the absence of an American official, will do all he can to see that justice is done. W. A. Sachtleben, the St. Louis wheelman, who has been searching through Armenia for some trace of his friend Lenz has been untiring in his efforts, and has at last had these men arrested, hoping that they are the guilty parties.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, NOV. 11.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

They say that the friends of Tom
Reed will attempt to nominate Hon.
J. B. Foraker if the Maine man fails;
but they forget that the gentleman
from Cincinnati will have something to say about that.

The Salem News has the hearty endorsement of the News Review in what it says condemnatory of a minister who recently declared at Ravenna
that "the newspaper had invaded the
sacredness of the home and dragged
down that sacred institution of God."
The best homes, the homes where the
light of intelligence falls upon every member of the family from the oldest
to the youngest, are the homes where
they read the newspapers. Take the newspaper from the home, and you
have taken away an uplifting influence whose absence will soon be felt.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Purity of home and public life is a grand desideratum. It is one of the strongest bulwarks in the life of a nation. It is demanded by God and hoped for by all true Christians. Any genuine movement looking to the advancement of social purity in this city
has an earnest advocate in the News
Review. The pertinent question in the present agitation must be: "Are
the right men and women in control."
Is William G. Huckle the proper man
to conduct affairs in a wise, helpful
and common sense manner? Who is qualified to answer?

BRICE IS GONE

Among the important results of the
election is the announcement that Colonel Brice has shaken the dust of Ohio from his feet, and will now become before the public what he has long been in fact—a resident of New York. The colonel, they say, is a shrewd man. A few weeks before election he placed himself comfortably
in a special car, and made several
trips over the state sounding the railroad men he met, and gleaming from
his friends the chances he had for success. When he found that all his money and influence could do him no
good he settled down to the conclusion that he was defeated, and prepared for the future. He wants to be president. For several years the inclination has been strong upon him,
and he now believes he is gathering
sufficient strength to have the nomination come his way. Not next year,
for the colonel is far too smart for
that. He knows a Republican, and that man Governor McKinley, will get
the place, so for this time he is out of
it. But not so with the next. He confidently expects the next Republican administration to make so many mistakes that the people will swing to Democracy for help, and Mr. Brice
will lead them. The plan of the colonel, if he has really decided on this course, is certainly a very pretty arrangement, and he may induce New York to accept him as he is, but in politics there are more slips between
the cup and the lip than in any other
vocation a man can enter.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshton, Florida, says he cured a
case of diarrhoea of long standing in
six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual
with this remedy. In many instances
only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always
be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

SULTAN NOT TO BLAME

Outrages Ordered From Palace
Without His Knowledge.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR STOPS RIOT

He Threatens to Hold Alexandretta and
the Outrages at Diarbekir Quickly
Stopped—The New Turkish Ministry
Not Expected to Last.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A dispatch to The Times from Constantinople says that as
proof that the Armenian massacres
are ordered from the Yildiz Kiosk not
necessarily with the sultan's knowledge, but by influential men of the palace party, anxious to discredit the administration of Kiamil Pasha, recently
grand vizier. The instance of Diarbekir
is worth citing. M. Cambon, the French ambassador, after learning of
the two days' rioting in Diarbekir,
threatened to hold Alexandretta with the French squadron until the resignation of the governor had been brought about. Two hours after this threat
reached the Yildiz Kiosk, Diarbekir
was tranquil. The Times' correspondent says that this is an eloquent fact
explaining the situation, and that many
smaller instances point the same way.
The diplomatic corps consider the
lives of Christians endangered throughout all the Asiatic provinces, but it is
not believed that they are in any danger
at Constantinople, because the members of the palace clique are not likely
to initiate any anti-Christian movements, and the members of the Mahomedan constitutional party advocate the adoption of the policy giving Christians
a share in the government. The natural tendency in consequence is the coalition of the Mahomedan constitutional party with the Armenians, and
in fact there are signs indicating that
such coalition would be likely to occur
under circumstances in any degree favorable.

It is believed at Constantinople that
the new ministry will not live over
today. A dispatch to The Standard
says that rumors are already in existence to the effect that a change may be expected in the office of grand
vizier and that Hali Rifat Pasha may soon be expected to step down and out.

Advices received by The Chronicle
from Constantinople are to the effect
that a consul has just arrived there,
and that he describes the whole country from Erzeroum and Trebizond as being completely devastated. Every Armenian town and village is in ruins.
Heaps of unburied bodies are found
everywhere.

A Turkish official states that the trouble originated at Erzeroum with an attack on the government house, caused by the seizure of prisoners. Petroleum was freely used for the purpose of setting fire to the houses of the Armenians.

LECHEROUS CHINAMAN KILLED.

An Unknown Man Murders His Daughter's
Assailant in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Lin Dock Dunn,
a Chinese laundryman on South Hal-
stead street, was shot and killed Sunday morning by the father of a young
girl whom he had attempted to assault.
The identity of the man who did the
shooting is at present known to no one
outside his own family except Lawyer
George A. Trude, whom he retained as his attorney.

Mr. Trude notified Sergeant Broderick of the station last evening to call his detectives off of the search for
the murderer, and promised to produce
the man who did the shooting at the
coroner's inquest today. Mr. Trude
refuses to give the name of his client,
and will only say that he is a thoroughly respectable man.

It appears that the young girl was sent to the laundry to get some washing that had been left there. The Chinaman attempted to take liberties
with the girl, who had a hard struggle
to escape. She reported the matter to her father and the enraged man at once went to the laundry and shot the Celestial dead.

WILL WHIP HIS LORDSHIP.

Lord Sholto Douglas' Mother-in-Law Says
She Will Horsewhip Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—A local paper says Lord Sholto Douglas, the son
of the Marquis of Queensberry, who
married a variety actress a few months
ago, is to be horsewhipped by Mrs. Addis, his mother-in-law. Mrs. Addis has announced that she will start for Los Angeles this week for the purpose of teaching her son-in-law some American

manners.

The disagreement is said to have resulted from the interference of Mrs.
Addis in the management of the Douglas household. Lord Sholto took exception to the action of his mother-in-law
and in a letter informed her that when
he married Miss Addis he did not marry
the whole family, and that he would
be pleased if his mother-in-law would
permit him to manage his own domestic affairs. Mrs. Addis says she will publicly horsewhip her son-in-law.

POSTOFFICE AFFAIRS.

First Assistant Postmaster General Jones
Makes His Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—First Assistant Postmaster General Frank H.
Jones has made his annual report for
the year ending June 30, 1895.

Mr. Jones shows that the divisions
under his supervision have saved during the year $1,395,577, the principal
items being in the saving of the carrier
service by stopping over time and the
reduction of the force amounting to $1,390,000. The salaries to all presidential postmasters amounted to $5,- 897,300, and the gross receipts of postoffices $60,538,097. The number of presidential postmasters are 3,491, of
which 159 are first class; 700 second
class, and 2,632 third class.

An estimate of $17,000,000 for all
postmasters is made for the year 1897,
an increase over the present year of
$1,000,000. The total number of positions brought within the classified
service during the year were 2,395.
Mr. Jones recommends the abolition of experimental free delivery unless $10,- 000,000 is appropriated for the purpose,
also free rural delivery unless $20,000,- 000 is appropriated.

Of the investigation and discharge of carriers for cause, Mr. Jones says that 855 carriers have been removed. He reviews the conditions which made the
investigation necessary, the principal
one being that the accumulation of
overtime claims showed that something was wrong.

An estimate of $12,960,300 is made
for the free delivery service next year.

The money order report shows that
there are 19,691 domestic order offices
and orders to the amount of $166,709,- 089 were issued and $156,159,689 paid.
Concerning dead letter matter the report says: "The number of pieces of
original dead mail matter received during the year for treatment was 6,319,- 873, a decrease of 781,171."

A BRAVE MINE BOSS.

He Kills Off Several Miners, Who Were
Inciting a Riot.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 11.—A
threatened riot at Ishkoota mines, near
this city, has been quelled by Perry
Watkins, the mine boss, who killed
two men and mortally wounded the
third. Watkins was assaulted by Louis
Smith, Jr., Louis Smith, Sr., and Columbus Madden with missiles.

When they had Watkins down and
thought to be knocked senseless, he
emptied his revolver, killing Louis
Smith, Jr., and Columbus Madden and
mortally wounding Louis Smith, Sr.
The other disaffected miners then
threatened Watkins, when they were quelled by Watkins starting the same
vigorous defense.

U. S. SURVEYORS MALTREATED.

They Are Mistaken For a Set of Fakirs
in West Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Herzog Mun-
roe, a geographer of the geological survey, has reported to the interior department that his party has been seriously maltreated at Campbell's Creek,
W. Va.

It appears that fake parties, representing themselves as government employees, have been going through that country, committing various depredations, and the real employees had been mistaken for another bogus party. The persons making the assault have been arrested.

New Foundlanders to Be Arrested.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Nov. 11.—Preparations are being made for the arrest
today of all persons implicated in the frauds connected with the settling of ships along the coast of New Found-
land. Upon the list appears the names
of business men, middle men, captains
and seamen.

$1,000,000 in Gold For Export.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Messrs. W. H.
Crossman & Bro., coffee merchants and
general commission merchants of 77
Broad street, have arranged to withdraw $1,000,000 gold at least from the
sub-treasury for export tomorrow.

RUSH OF LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS

Inquiring Concerning the Old Roman's
Condition From All Over the Country.
Harring Another Relapse, the Old
Statesman Will Be About Again.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 11.—Judge Allen G.
Thurman is much better, and it is now
thought that unless another relapse occurs he may regain his usual health.

Allen W. Thurman is in receipt of a great number of letters and telegrams
from all over the country making inquiry about his father's condition, and
clearly evidencing the affectionate regard in which the "Old Roman" is
held.

SHEAFOR HELD FOR COURT.

The Killing of Sylvan McCabe at Franklin, O., Aired at a Hearing.

FRANKLIN, O., Nov. 11.—William
Sheafor, charged with the killing of Miss Sylvan McCabe, has been bound
over, after a preliminary hearing, in
the sum of $1,000 to await the action
of the grand jury.

The defense will endeavor to prove
that the affair was planned to be a
double suicide, which is strengthened
by the finding of the notes that read,
"Please bury us in one grave. We are tired of life. Forgive us both. Will
and Sylvan," and which were written
in the girl's handwriting.

The general belief is that the young
couple had decided to end their lives
together, and that the young man shot
his sweetheart and then himself. The girl's wound was fatal, his a mere
scratch, and the theory is that his courage forsok him when he found
he had failed in his purpose. He then connected his story of her accidental shooting of himself and then her suicide.

At the hearing Attorney McDonald,
for the state, cited the fact that if two
people agree to kill each other or commit suicide, and the agreement is only
carried out by one, then the other is
guilty of murder in the eyes of the law.

Ohio Editors to Be Entertained.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 11.—The Buckeye
press association, composed of the editors of weekly papers throughout Ohio
and some from Michigan and Indiana,
will be the guests of a local paper here
tomorrow and Wednesday, after which
the editors will proceed to the Atlanta
exposition. It is expected that there will be 30 in the party, including the families of the editors. The president
is W. H. Marvin of Utica, Mich., and
secretary G. W. Wilkinson of North Baltimore, O. Quite a reception will be given the party here tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Brown Not Guilty.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 11.—Developments
in the Brown divorce case have been
made public upon the return of attorneys from Atlantic City, where they have been taking depositions. William C. Brown, a wealthy wholesale druggist, sued for divorce from his
wife, Della G. Brown. A bathing
master, Goldsmith, at Atlantic City,
was named as co-respondent. Several
of the witnesses swore they had testified falsely against Mrs. Brown and
guests at the hotel where she stopped
swore her conduct was exemplary.

A Good Place For Sportsmen.

PEEBLES, O., Nov. 11.—The quail
season, which opened today, will be
taken advantage of by sportsmen here.
Quail are unusually plentiful in this
part of the county, and local sports-
men are anticipating more sport than
for several years. There are plenty of rabbits, squirrels and opossum, but
ducks are reported scarce. The farmers in this immediate vicinity are posing their farms and will not allow careless shooting.

A Dairyman Fined.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 11.—C. H. Krug,
one of the dairymen arrested at the investigation of Deputy State Food and Dairy Commissioner Lurking on the charge of selling impure or adulterated
milk, was fined $50 and costs. Several dairymen were previously fined, and
other cases are pending before Squire
Smith. The action was brought about
by numerous complaints of bad milk,
and promises to have a wholesome
effect.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

The jewelry store of Frank Laubach at Akron was entered by burglars and $3,000
worth of jewelry stolen.

John Lillick of Portsmouth, a contract-
or who was in a runaway last June and
had his back broken, has just died, living
five months after the accident.

It has been discovered that Rad Hudson, who was recently appointed postmaster at Powellsville, is too deaf to attend to the duties of the office.
An effort will be made to have another official appointed, as he refuses to employ a deputy.

Mr. Alfred Cunningham and wife, plo-ney residents of Peebles, celebrated the forty-fifth anniversary of their wedding
at the home of their son, Joseph Cunningham. Over 100 invited guests were present, including their children, grandchildren and other relatives.

Six county prisoners of Portsmouth,
while being transferred from the county jail to the city workhouse, escaped from
the van and succeeded in fording the Ohio
river at Bonanza Bar, and reaching Kentucky in safety. The prisoners were John Morrow, John Davis, Charles Branning-
ham, Charles Clark, James White and John Ferguson.

A serious cutting affray occurred between Edward Rhoten and Mack Sharp
of Carlisle, six miles from Winchester.
Rhoten, who was drunk, met Sharp in a
store and began abusing him, and finally
pulled his knife, cutting Sharp six times
on the neck, face and arms. Sharp is in a dangerous condition, and his recovery is very doubtful. Rhoten escaped.

Deputy United States Marshal Harmon
of Toledo, who has been on the track of a gang of counterfeiters for some time in Paulding and Van Wert counties, has succeeded in arresting two of them, William H. Blackmore, living near Hoover's Postoffice, in Van Wert county, was caught at the depot at Latty. He also arrested a man named Baker and took both
prisoners to Toledo.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, NOV. 11.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
OF OHIO.

They say that the friends of Tom
Reed will attempt to nominate Hon.
J. B. Foraker if the Maine man fails;
but they forget that the gentleman
from Cincinnati will have something to say about that.

The Salem News has the hearty endorsement of the News Review in
what it says condemnatory of a minister who recently declared at Ravenna
that "the newspaper had invaded the
sacredness of the home and dragged
down that sacred institution of God."
The best homes, the homes where the
light of intelligence falls upon every
member of the family from the oldest
to the youngest, are the homes where
they read the newspapers. Take the
newspaper from the home, and you
have taken away an uplifting influence whose absence will soon be
felt.

SOCIAL PURITY.

grand desideratum. It is one of the
strongest bulwarks in the life of a nation. It is demanded by God and
hoped for by all true Christians. Any
genuine movement looking to the advancement of social purity in this city
has an earnest advocate in the News
Review. The pertinent question in
the present agitation must be: "Are
the right men and women in control.
Is William G. Huckle the proper man
to conduct affairs in a wise, helpful
and common sense manner?" Who is qualified to answer?

BRICE IS GONE

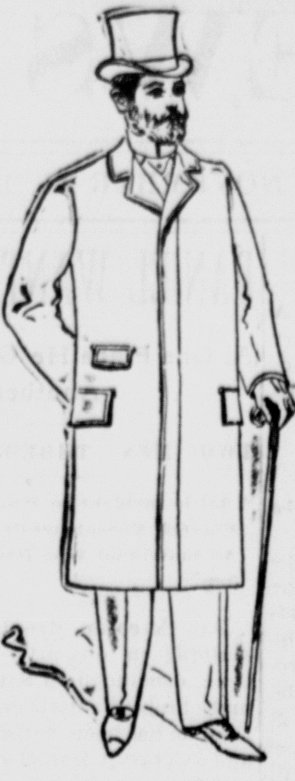

Among the important results of the
election is the announcement that
Colonel Brice has shaken the dust of Ohio from his feet, and will now be-
come before the public what he has
long been in fact—a resident of New York. The colonel, they say, is a shrewd man. A few weeks before
election he placed himself comfortably
in a special car, and made several
trips over the state sounding the rail-
road men he met, and gleaming from
his friends the chances he had for
success. When he found that all his
money and influence could do him no
good he settled down to the conclusion that he was defeated, and prepared for the future. He wants to be president. For several years the inclination has been strong upon him,
and he now believes he is gathering
sufficient strength to have the nomination come his way. Not next year,
for the colonel is far too smart for
that. He knows a Republican, and
that man Governor McKinley, will get
the place, so for this time he is out of
it. But not so with the next. He
confidently expects the next Republi-
can administration to make so many
mistakes that the people will swing to Democracy for help, and Mr. Brice
will lead them. The plan of the colonel, if he has really decided on this
course, is certainly a very pretty arrangement, and he may induce New York to accept him as he is, but in
politics there are more slips between
vocation a man can enter.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshton, Florida, says he cured a
case of diarrhoea of long standing in
Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. What a pleasant
surprise that must have been to the
sufferer. Such cures are not unusual
only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always
be depended upon. When reduced
with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Outrages Ordered From Palace
Without His Knowledge.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR STOPS RIOT

He Threatens to Hold Alexandretta and
the Outrages at Diarbekir Quickly
Stopped—The New Turkish Ministry
Not Expected to Last.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A dispatch to The Times from Constantinople says that as
proof that the Armenian massacres
are ordered from the Yildiz Kiosk not
necessarily with the sultan's knowl-
edge, but by influential men of the pal-
ace party, anxious to discredit the administration of Kiamil Pasha, recently
grand vizier. The instance of Diarbekir
is worth citing. M. Cambon, the French ambassador, after learning of
the two days' rioting in Diarbekir,
threatened to hold Alexandretta and
the outrages at Diarbekir quickly
stopped. Two hours after this threat
reached the Yildiz Kiosk, Diarbekir
was tranquil. The Times' correspondent says that this is an eloquent fact
explaining the situation, and that many
smaller instances point the same way.
The diplomatic corps consider the
lives of Christians endangered through-
out all the Asiatic provinces, but it is
not believed that they are in any danger
at Constantinople, because the members of the palace clique are not likely
to initiate any anti-Christian movements, and the members of the Mahomed-an constitutional party advocate the adoption of the policy giving Christians
a share in the government. The natural tendency in consequence is the
coalition of the Mahomedan constitutional party with the Armenians, and
in fact there are signs indicating that
such coalition would be likely to occur
under circumstances in any degree favorable.

It is believed at Constantinople that
the new ministry will not live over
today. A dispatch to The Standard
says that rumors are already in existence to the effect that a change may
be expected in the office of grand
vizier and that Hali Rifat Pasha may soon be expected to step down and out.

Advices received by The Chronicle
from Constantinople are to the effect
that a consul has just arrived there,
and that he describes the whole country from Erzeroum and Trebizond as
being completely devastated. Every
Armenian town and village is in ruins.
Heaps of unburied bodies are found
everywhere.

A Turkish official states that the
trouble originated at Erzeroum with an attack on the government house, caused by the torture of prisoners. Petroleum
was freely used for the purpose of setting fire to the houses of the Armenians.

LECHEROUS CHINAMAN KILLED.

An Unknown Man Murders His Daughter's
Assault In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Lin Dock Dunn,
a Chinese laundryman on South Hal-
stead street, was shot and killed Sun-
day morning by the father of a young
girl whom he had attempted to assault.
The identity of the man who did the
shooting is at present known to no one
outside his own family except Lawyer
George A. Trude, whom he retained as
his attorney.

Mr. Trude notified Sergeant Broderick of Central station last evening to
call his detectives off of the search for
the murderer, and promised to produce
the man who did the shooting at the
coroner's inquest today. Mr. Trude
refuses to give the name of his client,
and will only say that he is a thoroughly respectable man.

It appears that the young girl was
sent to the laundry to get some washing that had been left there. The Chinaman attempted to take liberties
with the girl, who had a hard struggle
to escape. She reported the matter to
her father and the enraged man at
once went to the laundry and shot the Celestial dead.

Lord Sholto Douglas' Mother-In-Law Says
She Will Horsewhip Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—A local pa-
per says Lord Sholto Douglas, the son
of the Marquis of Queensberry, who
married a variety actress a few months
ago, is to be horsewhipped by Mrs. Ad-

dis, his mother-in-law. Mrs. Addis has
Angeles this week for the purpose of
manners.

The disagreement is said to have resulted from the interference of Mrs.
Addis in the management of the Douglas household. Lord Sholto took exception to the action of his mother-in-law
and in a letter informed her that when
he married Miss Addis he did not marry
the whole family, and that he would
be pleased if his mother-in-law would
permit him to manage his own domestic affairs. Mrs. Addis says she will
publicly horsewhip her son-in-law.

POSTOFFICE AFFAIRS.

First Assistant Postmaster General Jones
Makes His Report.

sistant Postmaster General Frank H.
Jones has made his annual report for
the year ending June 30, 1895.

Mr. Jones shows that the divisions
under his supervision have saved during the year $1,595,577, the principal
items being in the saving of the carrier
service by stopping over time and the
reduction of the force amounting to $1,300,000. The salaries to all presidential postmasters amounted to $7, 897,300, and the gross receipts of post-
offices $60,538,097. The number of
presidential postmasters are 3,491, of
which 159 are first class; 700 second
class, and 2,632 third class.

An estimate of $17,000,000 for all
postmasters is made for the year 1897,
an increase over the present year of
$1,000,000. The total number of positions brought within the classified
service during the year were 2,395.
Mr. Jones recommends the abolition of
experimental free delivery unless $10,
000,000 is appropriated for the purpose,
also free rural delivery unless $20,000,
000 is appropriated.

Of the investigation and discharge of
carriers for cause, Mr. Jones says that 385 carriers have been removed. He reviews the conditions which made the
investigation necessary, the principal
one being that the accumulation of
overtime claims showed that something was wrong.

An estimate of $12,960,300 is made
for the free delivery service next year.
The money order report shows that
there are 19,691 domestic order offices
and orders to the amount of $169,709,
089 were issued and $156,159,089 paid.
Concerning dead letter matter the report says: "The number of pieces of
original dead mail matter received during the year for treatment was 6,319,
873, a decrease of 781,171."

A BRAVE MINE BOSS.

He Kills Off Several Miners, Who Were
Inciting a Riot.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 11.—A
threatened riot at Ishkoota mines, near
this city, has been quelled by Perry
Watkins, the mine boss, who killed
two men and mortally wounded the
third. Watkins was assaulted by Louis
Smith, Jr., Louis Smith, Sr., and Columbus Madden with missiles.

When they had Watkins down and
thought to be knocked senseless, he
emptied his revolver, killing Louis
mortally wounding Louis Smith, Sr.
The other disaffected miners then
threatened Watkins, when they were
quelled by Watkins starting the same
vigorous defense.

U. S. SURVEYORS MALTREATED.

In West Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Herzog Mun-
roe, a geographer of the geological survey, has reported to the interior department that his party has been seriously maltreated at Campbell's Creek,
W. Va.

It appears that fake parties, representing themselves as government employes, have been going through that
country, committing various depredations, and the real employes had been mistaken for another bogus party. The persons making the assault have been
arrested.

New Foundlanders to Be Arrested.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Nov. 11.—Preparations are being made for the arrest
today of all persons implicated in the frauds connected with the scuttling of
ships along the coast of New Found-
land. Upon the list appears the names
of business men, middle men, captains
and seamen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Messrs. W. H.
Crossman & Co., coffee merchants and
general commission merchants of 77
Broad street, have arranged to with-
draw $1,000,000 gold at least from the
sub-treasury for export tomorrow.

The Judge Now Has a Chance

RUSH OF LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS

Inquiring Concerning the Old Roman's
Condition From All Over the Country.
Harring Another Relapse the Old
Statesman Will Be About Again.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 11.—Judge Allen G.
Thurman is much better, and it is now
thought that unless another relapse occurs he may regain his usual health.

Allen W. Thurman is in receipt of a
great number of letters and telegrams
from all over the country making inquiry about his father's condition, and
clearly evidencing the affectionate regard in which the "Old Roman" is
held.

The Killing of Sylvan McCabe at Frank-
lin, O., Aired at a Hearing.

FRANKLIN, O., Nov. 11.—William
Sheafor, charged with the killing of
Miss Sylvan McCabe, has been bound
over, after a preliminary hearing, in
the sum of $1,000 to await the action
of the grand jury.

The defense will endeavor to prove
that the affair was planned to be a
double suicide, which is strengthened
by the finding of the notes that read,
"Please bury us in one grave. We are tired of life. Forgive us both. Will
and Sylvan," and which were written
in the girl's handwriting.

The general belief is that the young
couple had decided to end their lives
together, and that the young man shot
girl's wound was fatal, his a mere
scratch, and the theory is that his courage forsook him when he found
he had failed in his purpose. He then
concocted his story of her accidental
shooting of himself and then her suicide.

At the hearing Attorney McDonald,
for the state, cited the fact that if two
people agree to kill each other or com-
mit suicide, and the agreement is only
carried out by one, then the other is
guilty of murder in the eyes of the law.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 11.—The Buckeye
press association, composed of the editors of weekly papers throughout Ohio
and some from Michigan and Indiana,
will be the guests of a local paper here
tomorrow and Wednesday, after which
the editors will proceed to the Atlanta
exposition. It is expected that there will be 30 in the party, including the
families of the editors. The president
secretary G. W. Wilkinson of North
Baltimore, O. Quite a reception will be given the party here tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Brown Not Guilty.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 11.—Developments
in the Brown divorce case have been
made public upon the return of attorneys from Atlantic City, where they
have been taking depositions. William C. Brown, a wealthy wholesale
druggist, sued for divorce from his
wife, Della G. Brown. A bathing
master, Goldsmith, at Atlantic City,
was named as co-respondent. Several
of the witnesses swore they had testified falsely against Mrs. Brown and
guests at the hotel where she stopped
swore her conduct was exemplary.

A Good Place For Sportsmen.

PEEBLES, O., Nov. 11.—The quail
season, which opened today, will be
taken advantage of by sportsmen here.
Quail are unusually plentiful in this
part of the county, and local sports-
men are anticipating more sport than
for several years. There are plenty of rabbits, squirrels and opossum, but
ducks are reported scarce. The farmers in this immediate vicinity are posing their farms and will not allow careless shooting.

A Dairyman Fined.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 11.—C. H. Krug,
one of the dairymen arrested at the inspection of Deputy State Food and Dairy Commissioner Lurbing, on the charge of selling impure or adulterated
milk, was fined $50 and costs. Several dairymen were previously fined, and
other cases are pending before Squire
Smith. The action was brought about
by numerous complaints of bad milk,
effect.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

The jewelry store of Frank Laubach at Akron was entered by burglars and $3,000
worth of jewelry stolen.

John Lillick of Portsmouth, a contract-
or who was in a runaway last June and
had his back broken, has just died, living
five months after the accident.

It has been discovered that Rad Hudson, who was recently appointed postmaster at Powellsville, is too deaf to attend to the duties of the office.
official appointed, as he refuses to employ a deputy.

Mr. Alfred Cunningham and wife, pioneer residents of Peebles, celebrated the
forty-fifth anniversary of their wedding
at the home of their son, Joseph Cunningham. Over 100 invited guests were present, including their children, grand-
children and other relatives.

Six county prisoners of Portsmouth,
while being transferred from the county
jail to the city workhouse, escaped from
the van and succeeded in fording the Ohio
river at Bonanza Bar, and reaching Kentucky in safety. The prisoners were John Morrow, John Davis, Charles Brannin-
ham, Charles Clark, James White and John Ferguson.

A serious cutting affray occurred between Edward Rhoten and Mack Sharp
of Carlisle, six miles from Winchester.
Rhoten, who was drunk, met Sharp in a
store and began abusing him, and finally
pulled his knife, cutting Sharp six times
on the neck, face and arms. Sharp is in a dangerous condition, and his recovery is

Deputy United States Marshal Harmon
of Toledo, who has been on the track of a
gang of counterfeiters for some time in Paulding and Van Wert counties, has succeeded in arresting two of them. William H. Blackmore, living near Hoover's Postoffice, in Van Wert county, was
caught at the depot at Latty. He also arrested a man named Baker and took both
prisoners to Toledo.

CUBANS SHOULD SPURN

Any Conciliatory Offer From Spain, Says a Leader.

FREEDOM IS IN THEIR GRASP.

New Englanders Request the President to Recognize the Patriots—Admitted in Official Circles in Havana That Affairs Have Reached a Crisis.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Mr. C. G. Veley, a Cuban, who has been in Spain on a mission in the interest of the insurgent cause, has arrived in New York on the steamer Veendam. He said that he expects to lead an expedition to Cuba in the near future. His father, he said, is in Paris, where he is doing good work in the cause of Cuban independence.

Mr. Veley gave it as his opinion that it is now too late for the Spanish government to offer concessions to the struggling Cubans, as the insurgents are in good condition, and expect soon the consummation of their hopes in a Cuban republic.

A Boston special says: The following resolution was passed at a patriotic mass meeting in the People's Temple: "Resolved, That we, as citizens of Boston and New England, unite in asking President Grover Cleveland to do for Cuba all things in his power by granting belligerent rights. It is our faith that Cuba should be free, and that our sympathies go forth to the patriots of that island."

A Havana special says: It is now admitted, even in official circles, that the insurgents have recently made such progress in the different provinces in which they are operating, and that they have received such a quantity of arms, ammunition and dynamite that affairs may be said to be reaching a crisis.

In view of this decidedly alarming condition of affairs, General Suarez Valdes and Prats have been ordered to concentrate their forces, and to attack the insurgents at all hazards. As the weather is now getting better for military operations, it can safely be said that within a week several hot engagements will have been fought, and possibly the fate of the insurrection will have been decided.

In face of all this preparation for bloodshed, it is satisfactory to know that the captain general is in favor of granting some form of home rule to Cuba, and hopes are expressed that his advice will be taken before it is too late.

A Special Messenger to Satali.

ROME, Nov. 11.—The Marquis Benoit Scipione, of the Pontifical Noble Guard, starts as a special messenger to the United States immediately after the papal consistory on Nov. 25 to convey to Mr. Satali, the delegate to the Roman Catholic church in the United States, the official news of his elevation as cardinal. The marquis will take with him the calotte and baretta, which will be put on the newly-made cardinal by Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore.

Searched by the Spanish.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The American brig Harriet G has arrived at quarantine from Nuevitas, Cuba. On Oct. 3 a Spanish officer, with several soldiers, boarded the brig and made a thorough search for a large quantity of arms which the Spanish officials had been informed were on board the vessel. The brig was ransacked from stem to stern, but no arms were found.

To Open Indian Lands.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The president has signed the proclamation opening the Nez Percés ceded lands to settlement on Nov. 18. The proclamation directs the provisions of the law and decrees that under the regulations issued by the secretary of the interior the lands shall be opened to settlement, according to the terms of the treaty.

Sensational Arrest For Murder.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—A sensation has been caused in Cherokee county by the arrest of George Montague, a wealthy German farmer, on a charge of killing Mr. and Mrs. Schultz, an old couple, two years ago. Montague is a brother of the murdered woman. He was arrested at the instance of a neighbor, who said he confessed to the crime.

New Plant For Sioux City.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—Sioux City has practically secured next to the largest glucose factory in the world. C. Anson Potter, New York, representing eastern capitalists, has signed the agreement to put in a $1,000,000 plant if $75,000 bonus is raised. Two-thirds of the amount has been raised and the rest will be easily secured.

Catholic Celebration In New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11.—Sunday morning at the historic convent of the Ursuline nuns, the statue of "Our Lady of Prompt Succor" was crowned with a diadem of gold and jewels whose intrinsic worth is many thousand dollars, and the occasion was made one of pomp and ceremony by the prominent Catholics of this city and state.

FIGHTERS UNDER ARREST.

The West Virginia Prizefight Law to Be Tested During the Week.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 11.—For the past six weeks members of the sporting fraternity of this city have witnessed many boxing contests, and many prominent in pugilistic circles have been attracted here by the numerous mills that took place, the most prominent of which were Dan Flaherty of Portland, Or., and Dick Wilson of Cincinnati, while Jack Daugherty of the latter city fought John Bingham of this place.

The grand jury has not only indicted the principals, but also the lessee of the opera house, Joseph Miller, a leading citizen, and Eugene Gwinn, a prominent clothing man, who had something to do with bringing the pugilists together. They were all arrested. A test case will be tried next week.

THE CZARNA MAY DIE.

Physicians Perform the Caesarian Operation Upon Her.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The news that comes from St. Petersburg through channels that entitle it to full belief, gives a sad and startling turn to the recent pleasant gossip about the coming birth of an heir to the imperial crown of Russia.

The Caesarian operation has been performed on her. The men of science are no longer able to conceal from the imperial husband the imminent danger of the czarina.

It is understood in official circles that her recovery is considered impossible—that there is no hope whatever for either her or the child.

M. E. Church Extension.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The closing meeting of the Methodist Church Extension society was enlivened by a warm debate. It was started by the report which will be presented to the general conference in Cleveland in May, 1896. The matter which started the trouble was as to the propriety of recommending a limitation clause, preventing assistance to churches costing more than $10,000. The report was finally returned to the committee for revision. It was decided that all meetings of the Church Extension society shall be held in Philadelphia hereafter.

To Prevent Lynching.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 11.—The South Carolina constitutional convention has passed an anti-lynching provision. It provides that if any prisoner in charge of a sheriff or other state, county or municipal officer is seized and taken from such officer through his negligence, permission or connivance, and suffer bodily harm or death, such officer shall be removed from office and shall be ineligible to hold another if upon the trial he is convicted.

Rockefeller Called an Anarchist.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—John D. Rockefeller was denounced a practical anarchist at Sunday's meeting of the Chicago Socialist Labor party, and the Chicago university was named the Chicago Standard Oil university. The application was made by Jesse Cox, a local attorney, in a speech during the progress of a meeting held on West Twelfth street in commemoration of the execution of Spies, Parsons and their comrades.

Danrosch's Company In Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, Nov. 11.—The arrival of Walter Danrosch and his symphony orchestra and company of Wagnerian singers by special train from Pittsburgh and New York is preparatory to the opening of the American tour of his opera company which occurs here tomorrow night. Unusual interest has been manifested by the musical public on account of the reputation of the artists and of the long dearth of opera in Cincinnati.

Mutiny Among Chinese Soldiers.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 11.—The Mercury reports that a mutiny has broken out among the soldiers of Kin-Klog, and that they are defying the officials, who seem powerless, as they refuse to surrender their arms. Affairs are in a very critical state and a panic exists among the natives, and the wealthier classes are leaving. The foreign residents are armed, having been warned and prepared for an emergency.

The Marlboroughs Will Attend.

OAKDALE, L. I., Nov. 11.—The Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, it is said, will attend the horse show in the Madison Square garden next Wednesday evening. The bridal couple have promised to visit the see house in Garden City as the guest of Bishop Littlejohn before they leave Long Island. The bishop baptized the Duchess and also officiated at the marriage ceremony.

The Bishop Refused an Injunction.

OMAHA, Nov. 11.—The affairs of the Catholic church in the west have taken a startling turn through the difficulties of Bishop Bonacum. An injunction has been refused the bishop in the district court against Fathers Fitzgerald and Murphy to force them to surrender their church property at Tecumseh. These priests represent the element opposed to the bishop.

Fatal Wreck In Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 11.—There has been a collision between a freight and passenger train at Franklin, on the L. & N. Engineer Ed. Corbett was killed and his fireman was badly hurt.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A select dance will be given in Turner hall this evening.

A horse owned by Frank Peters died in Church alley last night.

Henry Ashbaugh, of Avondale street, is ill, and it is feared that he has the typhoid fever.

Dell Tarr, the pianist, has secured a position playing at the dancing academy in Wheeling.

Nancy Hanks was out this morning, and the crew made some needed repairs on the electric line.

The canvass vestibules in some of the street cars have been responsible for a number of frightened horses the past few days.

Two additions were made to the Second U. P. church yesterday as a result of the special meetings that were held last week.

Invitations have been received here for a masquerade ball at Salineville on Thanksgiving evening, and several from the city will attend.

The squire's courts have few cases today and there has been a dearth of litigation the past few weeks. The condition speaks well for the prosperity of the city.

In spite of the rain and the miserable weather there were a number of drunks on the street Saturday night, but only two became so disorderly that the police saw fit to make arrests.

Mamie, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bower, died at the home of her parents in East End, Pl. Asburg, on Saturday. Funeral services were conducted this afternoon.

Patrick McKenna this morning entered suit in the court of Squire Rose against Osborne & Moreland for $13.14, claimed due for work and labor performed. The case will be heard on Nov. 14.

The Thomas plant is rushed with orders and the works are being pushed to their fullest capacity. Recently the employees have been working at night to fill the great demand for electrical goods.

The old opera house building on Second street is being repaired and partitioned off into rooms that will be rented to families. It is understood that the old structure will be greatly improved in appearance.

Thomas Lounds, a well known resident of Fourth street, has a beating on one of his fingers that is causing him infinite trouble. He is unable to work, and often walks the street at night, so intense is the pain.

Avondale street people are wading through the mud, and wondering when the street will be improved; but they will not have long to wait. The bids will be opened Nov. 20, and the work will be pushed as soon as possible afterward.

No more information can be obtained regarding the proposed railroad from Canton to this city, but many stories are flying about the city. The latest is that the road has no connection whatever with any great system, but is a purely independent enterprise.

The Ironclad tin plant started today after a shut down extending through a week. A number of people from the tin town were in the city Saturday night, and expressed the belief that they would have a prosperous winter. Operations at the mill have been delayed because of a scarcity of water.

The street cars were placed on the new schedule today, but that did not prevent objection yesterday, because there was no fire in the cars. One passenger said they might burn red fire, another suggested that they put red paper in the stove, and the motorman said he would allow the front door to stay open if it got too hot.

A lady while walking on Washington street yesterday had an experience that does not often happen. A sparrow flying through the air for some reason collided with her, striking her a sharp blow in the face. The lady was startled and so was the bird, but neither was hurt, and both took their several ways, the lady wearing a red spot on her face, and wondering if she was injured.

The agitation in Pittsburgh caused by the great number of cases of typhoid fever in the city and Allegheny is causing some alarm here, but a prominent physician expressed the belief today that there was little cause for apprehension until the water out of the harbor is allowed to come down the river. Until that time he advises that all water used for drinking in the city be boiled.

In one of our prominent churches were seated three young ladies on Sunday, the only other occupant of the seat being a white-haired old gentleman, a Christian and a believer in good manners and respect to the house of God. The other three occupants of the seat had neither good manners nor respect for the house of worship, as they giggled and talked from the commencement to the close of the service, and proved a condemned nuisance to every person around and about them. They should have been compelled to behave themselves or leave the building.

"Persons having correct vision will be able to read this notice at a distance of 12 inches from the eye with ease and comfort, and will be able to read with such ease and comfort if unable to do so your eyes are defective and should have immediate attention. It has been known that from reading, writing, or if the person look tired and run together, it is a sure indication that the vision is impaired. The reason is that the strong grade eye of an equal density and have imperfectly formed surfaces. Continued use of such eyes leads to the formation of defective surfaces, and the result is a loss of vision. It is therefore imperative that the eyes be examined by a competent optician to supply the defects in the eyes."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Latest United States Government Food Report. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

CUBANS SHOULD SPURN

Any Conciliatory Offer From Spain, Says a Leader.

FREEDOM IS IN THEIR GRASP.

New Englanders Request the President to Recognize the Patriots—Admitted in Official Circles in Havana That Affairs Have Reached a Crisis.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Mr. C. G. Veley, a Cuban, who has been in Spain on a mission in the interest of the insurgent cause, has arrived in New York on the steamer Vendam. He said that he expects to lead an expedition to Cuba in the near future. His father, he said, is in Paris, where he is doing good work in the cause of Cuban independence.

Mr. Veley gave it as his opinion that it is now too late for the Spanish government to offer concessions to the struggling Cubans, as the insurgents are in good condition, and expect soon the consummation of their hopes in a Cuban republic.

A Boston special says: The following resolution was passed at a patriotic massmeeting in the People's Temple: "Resolved, That we, as citizens of Boston and New England, unite in asking President Grover Cleveland to do for Cuba all things in his power by granting belligerent rights. It is our faith that Cuba should be free, and that our sympathies go forth to the patriots of that island."

A Havana special says: It is now admitted, even in official circles, that the insurgents have recently made such progress in the different provinces in which they are operating, and that they have received such a quantity of arms, ammunition and dynamite that affairs may be said to be reaching a crisis.

In view of this decidedly alarming condition of affairs, General Suarez Valdes and Prats have been ordered to concentrate their forces, and to attack the insurgents at all hazards. As the weather is now getting better for military operations, it can safely be said that within a week several hot engagements will have been fought, and possibly the fate of the insurrection will have been decided.

In face of all this preparation for bloodshed, it is satisfactory to know that the captain general is in favor of granting some form of home rule to Cuba, and hopes are expressed that his advice will be taken before it is too late.

A Special Messenger to Satolli.

ROME, Nov. 11.—The Marquis Benoit Sacripante, of the Pontifical Noble Guard, starts as a special messenger to the United States immediately after the papal consistory on Nov. 25 to convey to Mr. Satolli, the delegate to the Roman Catholic church in the United States, the official news of his creation as cardinal. The marquis will take with him the calotte and baretta, which will be put on the newly-made cardinal by Cardinal Gibbons, of Baltimore.

Searched by the Spanish.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The American brig Harriet G. has arrived at quarantine from Nuevitas, Cuba. On Oct. 3 a Spanish officer, with several soldiers, boarded the brig and made a thorough search for a large quantity of arms which the Spanish officials had been informed were on board the vessel. The brig was ransacked from stem to stern, but no arms were found.

To Open Indian Lands.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The president has signed the proclamation opening the Nez Perce ceded lands to settlement on Nov. 18. The proclamation recites the provisions of the law and directs that under the regulations issued by the secretary of the interior the lands shall be opened to settlement, according to the terms of the treaty.

Sensational Arrest For Murder.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—A sensation has been caused in Cherokee county by the arrest of George Montague, a wealthy German farmer, on a charge of killing Mr. and Mrs. Schultz, an old couple, two years ago. Montague is a brother of the murdered woman. He was arrested at the instance of a neighbor, who said he confessed to the crime.

New Plant For Sioux City.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—Sioux City has practically secured next to the largest glucose factory in the world. C. Anson Potter, New York, representing eastern capitalists, has signed the agreement to put in a $1,000,000 plant if $75,000 bonus is raised. Two-thirds of the amount has been raised and the rest will be easily secured.

Catholic Celebration In New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11.—Sunday morning at the historic convent of the Ursuline nuns, the statue of "Our Lady of Prompt Succor" was crowned with a diadem of gold and jewels whose intrinsic worth is many thousand dollars, and the occasion was made one of pomp and ceremony by the prominent Catholics of this city and state.

FIGHTERS UNDER ARREST.

The West Virginia Prizefight Law to Be Tested During the Week.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 11.—For the past six weeks members of the sporting fraternity of this city have witnessed many boxing contests, and many prominent in pugilistic circles have been attracted here by the numerous mills that took place, the most prominent of which were Dan Flaherty of Portland, Or., and Dick Wilton of Cincinnati, while Jack Daugherty of the latter city fought John Bingham of this place.

The grand jury has not only indicted the principals, but also the lessee of the opera house, Joseph Miller, a leading citizen, and Eugene Gwinn, a prominent clothing man, who had something to do with bringing the pugilists together. They were all arrested. A test case will be tried next week.

THE CZAR NA MAY DIE.

Physicians Perform the Cæsarian Operation Upon Her.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The news that comes from St. Petersburg through channels that entitle it to full belief, gives a sad and startling turn to the recent pleasant gossip about the coming birth of an heir to the imperial crown of Russia.

The Cæsarian operation has been performed on her. The men of science

are no longer able to conceal from the imperial husband the imminent danger of the czarina.

It is understood in official circles that her recovery is considered impossible—that there is no hope whatever for either her or the child.

M. E. Church Extension.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The closing meeting of the Methodist Church Extension society was enlivened by a warm debate. It was started by the report which will be presented to the general conference in Cleveland in May, 1896. The matter which started the trouble was as to the propriety of recommending a limitation clause, preventing assistance to churches costing more than $10,000. The report was finally returned to the committee for revision. It was decided that all meetings of the Church Extension society shall be held in Philadelphia hereafter.

To Prevent Lynching.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 11.—The South Carolina constitutional convention has passed an anti-lynching provision. It provides that if any prisoner in charge of a sheriff or other state, county or municipal officer is seized and taken from such officer through his negligence, permission or connivance, and suffer bodily harm or death, such officer shall be removed from office and shall be ineligible to hold another if upon the trial he is convicted.

Roosevelt Called an Anarchist.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—John D. Rockefeller was denounced a practical anarchist at Sunday's meeting of the Chicago Socialist Labor party, and the Chicago university was named the Chicago Standard Oil university. The application was made by Jesse Cox, a local attorney, in a speech during the progress of a meeting held on West Twelfth street in commemoration of the execution of Spies, Parsons and their comrades.

Damrosch's Company In Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 11.—The arrival of Walter Damrosch and his symphony orchestra and company of Wagnerian singers by special train from Pittsburgh and New York is preparatory to the opening of the American tour of his opera company which occurs here tomorrow night. Unusual interest has been manifested by the musical public on account of the reputation of the artists and of the long dearth of opera in Cincinnati.

Mutiny Among Chinese Soldiers.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 11.—The Mercury reports that a mutiny has broken out among the soldiers of Kin-Klog, and that they are defying the officials, who that they are refusing to surrender power. Affairs are in a very critical state and a panic exists among the natives, and the wealthier classes are leaving. The foreign residents are armed, having been warned and prepared for an emergency.

The Marlboroughs Will Attend.

OAKDALE, L. I., Nov. 11.—The Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, it is said, will attend the horse show in the Madison Square garden next Wednesday evening. The bridal couple have promised to visit the see house in Garden City as the guest of Bishop Littlejohn before they leave Long Island. The bishop baptized the Duchess and also officiated at the marriage ceremony.

The Bishop Refused an Injunction.

OMAHA, Nov. 11.—The affairs of the Catholic church in the west have taken a startling turn through the difficulty of Bishop Bonanum. An injunction has been refused the bishop in the district court against Fathers Fitzgerald and Murphy to force them to surrender their church property at Tecumseh. These priests represent the element opposed to the bishop.

Fatal Wreck In Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 11.—There has been a collision between a freight and passenger train at Franklin, on the L. & N. Engineer Ed Corbett was killed and his fireman was badly hurt.

There's Nothing Like It.

The opportunities for money saving that we are now offering are unparalleled in the annals of shoe buying. Our prices are always lower than they are elsewhere, and now they are still lower.

This is because our stock is extraordinarily large and must be turned into cash. We take off the price brake and the stock moves itself.

Our 19c Ladies' Seven-Button Overtakers are as good as those sold elsewhere for 40 cents.

Our 48 cent Children's Shoes are as good as those sold elsewhere for 65 cents. Our Women's 98c Genuine Dongola Button Shoes are as good as those sold elsewhere for $1.25. Our $2.50 Men's and Women's Shoes are as good as those sold elsewhere for $3.00 and $3.50; and soon. We can always save you money and give better and nicer shoes.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A select dance will be given in Turner hall this evening.

A horse owned by Frank Peters died in Church alley last night.

Henry Ashbaugh, of Avondale street, is ill, and it is feared that he has the typhoid fever.

Dell Tarr, the pianist, has secured a position playing at the dancing academy in Wheeling.

Nancy Hanks was out this morning, and the crew made some needed repairs on the electric line.

The canvass vestibules in some of the street cars have been responsible for a number of frightened horses the past few days.

Two additions were made to the Second U. P. church yesterday as a result of the special meetings that were held last week.

Invitations have been received here for a masquerade ball at Salleneville on Thanksgiving evening, and several from the city will attend.

The squire's courts have few cases today and there has been a dearth of litigation the past few weeks. The condition speaks well for the prosperity of the city.

In spite of the rain and the miserable weather there were a number of drunks on the street Saturday night, but only two became so disorderly that the police saw fit to make arrests.

Mamie, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bower, died at the home of her parents in East End, Pittsburg, on Saturday. Funeral services were conducted this afternoon.

Patrick McKenna this morning entered suit in the court of Squire Rose against Osborne & Moreland for $13.14, claimed due for work and labor performed. The case will be heard on Nov. 14.

The Thomas plant is rushed with orders and the works are being pushed to their fullest capacity. Recently the employees have been working at night to fill the great demand for electrical goods.

The old opera house building on Second street is being repaired and partitioned off into rooms that will be rented to families. It is understood that the old structure will be greatly improved in appearance.

Thomas Lounds, a well known resident of Fourth street, has a healing on one of his fingers that is causing him infinite trouble. He is unable to work, and often walks the street at night, so intense is the pain.

Avondale street people are wading through the mud, and wondering when the street will be improved; but they will not have long to wait. The bids will be opened Nov. 20, and the work will be pushed as soon as possible afterward.

No more information can be obtained regarding the proposed railroad from Canton to this city, but many stories are flying about the city. The latest is that the road has no connection whatever with any great system, but is a purely independent enterprise.

The Ironclad plant started today after a shut down extending through a week. A number of people from the tin town were in the city Saturday night, and expressed the belief that they would have a prosperous winter. Operations at the mill have been delayed because of a scarcity of water.

The street cars were placed on the new schedule today, but that did not prevent objection yesterday, because there was no fire in the cars. One passenger said they might burn red fire, another suggested that they put red paper in the stove, and the motorman said he would allow the front door to stay open if it got too hot.

A lady while walking on Washington street yesterday had an experience that does not often happen. A sparrow flying through the air for some reason collided with her, striking her a sharp blow in the face. The lady was startled and so was the bird, but neither was hurt, and both took their several ways, the lady wearing a red spot on her face, and wondering if she was injured.

The agitation in Pittsburg caused by the great number of cases of typhoid fever in the city and Allegheny is causing some alarm here, but a prominent physician expressed the belief today that there was little cause for apprehension until the water out of the harbor is allowed to come down the river. Until that time he advises that all water used for drinking in the city be boiled.

In one of our prominent churches were seated three young ladies on Sunday, the only other occupant of the seat being a white-haired old gentleman, a Christian and a believer in good manners and respect to the house of God. The other three occupants of the seat had neither good manners nor respect for the house of worship, as they giggled and talked from the commencement to the close of the service, and proved a condemned nuisance to every person around and about them. They should have been compelled to behave themselves or leave the building.

McGAVERN'S SIDE.

He Thinks the Court Did Right in the Jennings Case.
EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—In reply to the scoring I received at the hands of the police in the Crisis of last Saturday, I beg leave to say a few words in my own defense.
Regarding the story about unfairness, that is absurd. Justice reigned in that court before which the officer stood, and all the influence that the defense could bring to bear could not turn or deter the judge from his duty. They tried by every scheme to blacken my character. The attorney for the defense dubbed me an outlaw and a desperado—a bad man generally. While I may not possess the silver tongue of the orator, the power and weight of his words in debate, I never turned my back on a fellow being in distress, and was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He has the gift of gab, but he could not influence those men in a manner which would reflect upon their character in a way, to say the least, inconsistent. There has been bad blood between Officer Earl and myself for some time, the existence of which accounts for his side of the story. If these officers have no respect for me, let them at least show some respect for those kind friends who respected themselves so readily in my behalf. The slurs of the attorney for the defense did not cause them to weaken one iota. I wish to thank them for their assistance. I do not think it was because I was McGavern, but because they are good, honest men, who wished to see justice done and to discourage any such acts of brutality in the future. To the police force I have little or nothing to say. They imagined they had stumbled upon a man utterly devoid of friends.
JOHN CHARLES MCGAVERN.

Another Word About the Defeat of the Road.
EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—In answer to the communication from "Magok" in your issue of Saturday evening, permit me to say, as a resident of East End, that we are not aware of the "fact" that the people of Avondale street are paying for their improvement. And that we are aware of the fact that the city is to pay what the law will not permit to be assessed to the property and which will amount to between $1,000 and $2,000 more than the law compels the city to pay, which are street intersections and one fiftieth of entire cost of improvements.
Now permit me to say that we have no complaints to make on that score for they are entitled to all and more improvements than they get, and so do all the suburbs. And we have no complaint to make in regard to the vote. We are always satisfied and willing to try it again.
East End.

MUST PAY UP.

Mayer Gilbert Is After Those Who Own Old Fines.
Mayor Gilbert was busily engaged today in sending out notices asking delinquents to call in and pay. It is the custom around city hall to give credit upon approved security where a man is considered safe, but at times the authorities mistake their men, and are compelled to send out statements. The workhouse argument is still in force, and if the victims of the law do not pay up the mayor can send them to the works for a season.

Amusements.

The popular comedian, singer and dancer, Corse Payton, and his excellent company, including Miss Etta Reed, commence a week's engagement at the Grand opera house Monday evening, Nov. 11, in the grand society drama, in five acts, entitled, "The Parisian Princess." This company carries a carload of elaborate scenery, electric and calcium effects; handsome stage decorations, properties and elegant costumes. Notwithstanding the enormous increase in the expense there is no advance in the prices, which remain at 10, 20 and 30 cents. Ladies will be admitted free Monday when accompanied by a paid 30 cent ticket, which must be purchased before 6 p. m. of that day.

Missing The Car.

The horses of express wagons which stand day after day at the passenger station have learned a trick for use when the street cars pass. To stand comfortably with the wagons backed against the curb, the horses have their heads just above a rail of the street car line. They object to standing in any other way, and when a car approaches they simply turn their heads enough to allow it to pass without striking them. They do it every time a car goes by, and all have learned the trick.

Committees Appointed.

The Phoenix and Columbian clubs have appointed committees to look after the matter of a charity ball, and a joint meeting will be held this week. The object is to have the affair as much of a money maker as possible, the proceeds being used for relieving distress in the city.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—L. J. McGhie is a Toronto visitor today.
—F. F. Debolt, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday here with friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Chapman are visiting in the city before going to housekeeping in Sistersville.
—Mark Smith and Samuel Meyers, of Philadelphia, are the guests of William Erlanger, Fifth street.
—Mrs. James E. Williams has returned to her home in Rochester after spending a week with friends here.
—Will Murphy, who has been at the home of his father in this city for several months, left today for Pittsburg, where he will look after business matters for a month or two.

Two Deaths.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rough, of College street, died on Saturday night after a long illness, death being hastened by the infirmities of old age. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon interment being made in Long's Run cemetery.
Mrs. Catherine Queen, mother of Tip Queen the well known horseman, died at her home near Salineville on Friday and was buried yesterday. The deceased was well known in this city.

The weather.

The weather for the month is predicted as follows:
From 13th to 16th change for warmer may be expected and then a storm of rain and snow to be followed by cold weather. Changes from 19th to 20th and rain and snow and about 21st to 23d sharp cold may be expected. From 23d to 27th storms of wind and rain, changing to snow and sleet, will sweep from the northwest and cold will follow this period.

Blood Poison Killed Him.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, Nov. 11.—Charles W. Beck, a respected resident of this place and a veteran of the late war, died here today after a short illness. An operation was performed upon him not long ago, and blood poison set in resulting in his death.

For a Dancing Hall.

A movement is on foot in the city that has for its object the leasing of the Brunt Opera house on Market street, and transforming it into a dancing hall with a hard wood floor. A number of well known young men are said to be back of the scheme.

Want A Date.

The manager of the Allegheny foot ball team has written to the team here regretting very much that the grounds were such that they could not play on Saturday. He is anxious for another date, and hopes that the game can be played this week.

Branding The Horse.

A few weeks ago 500 feet of new hose was received at the fire station, and today the force was at work placing the brand of the city on every length. All the hose owned by the city is branded in this way in order that none of it be lost.

A Prosperous Lodge.

The Daughters of America will meet tomorrow evening for the purpose of nominating officers for the year. Six new members will also be received. The lodge is in a prosperous condition, and was never better than at present.

Potatoes are Cheap.

Several farmers were in town today selling potatoes on the streets, and the price asked was lower than the tubers have sold in this city for some time. The peddlers did a thriving business, and soon disposed of their stocks.

The Train Was Late.

The noon train going east was half an hour late today the reason being a defect in the mechanism of the engine. Time was lost this side of Irondale, but another engine was secured at Wellsville.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

The American colony at Berlin will celebrate Thanksgiving day with a dinner and ball at the Kaiserhof.
In a conflict at Vera Cruz, Mexico, between troops and a mob several people were wounded. The trouble was purely local.
Carson S. Breckinridge, son of the United States minister to Russia, has entered for a four years' course at the Berlin university.
William Hill, a prominent oil operator of Pittsburg, was found dead in the Burning Springs oil field with a bullet hole in his brain.
The great shipbuilding strike at Belfast and on the Clyde is now fairly under way. On the Clyde 4,000 engineers are idle, and 1,500 are out of work at Belfast.
Advices received at Berlin from Friedrichshagen say that Prince Bismarck's condition is satisfactory, barring facial neuralgia and frequent insomnia.
After a long trial, James and John McCann, brothers, have been convicted of murder in the first degree at Seattle, Wash., for the killing of Joseph Cicero.
The structural iron workers at Cleveland have decided to form a national organization on similar basis to the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers.
The police have searched the home in Zehlendorf, close to Berlin, of Herr Schumann, the correspondent of an American newspaper, for treasonable literature, and have seized several papers.
Edward Marns and wife of Huntington, W. Va., who have been on trial for the murder of their 6-year-old daughter last March, have been released on account of a flaw in the indictment.

Uncoupled the Cars.

A party of boys playing near the Dresden pottery this afternoon are reported to have uncoupled four cars that were on the switch and allowed them to go down the track at a high rate of speed. Fortunately they were stopped before they were wrecked.

Lower Rates to Atlanta.

Three forms of excursion tickets to Atlanta account the Cotton States Exposition are for sale via Pennsylvania Lines. One ticket is good returning twenty days from date of sale, another is good for return trip until January 7th, 1896, and a third good returning ten days. Twenty day tickets and those good to return until Jan. 7th may be obtained any time during the Exposition. The ten day tickets will be sold only on Oct. 26th, Nov. 5th, 15th and 25th, and Dec. 5th and 16th, at special low rates. The fare is exceptionally cheap. For details apply to nearest ticket agent of Pennsylvania Lines or address.

A Banquet.

The colored Knights of Pythias of this city and Wellsville are arranging for a banquet and ball to be conducted in city hall, Wellsville, on Thanksgiving night. Many invitations will be sent out of town.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, O., is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Waterproof collars and cuffs that will not wilt, are not effected by moisture and look just like linen are all the fashion now. They are made by covering a linen collar or cuff with "celluloid" and are the only waterproof goods made with an interlining, consequently the only ones that will stand wear and give perfect satisfaction. Try them and you will never regret it. Always neat, and easily cleaned. When soiled simply wipe off with a wet cloth or sponge. Every piece of the genuine is stamped as follows:

Ask for those so marked and refuse any imitations, as they cannot possibly please you. If your dealer does not keep them, we will send a sample direct on receipt of price. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs 50c. pair. State size and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

MONEY FOR NAVAL USE.

Commodore Hichborn Asks For Needed Appropriations For the Coming Year.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Commodore Philip Hichborn, chief of the bureau of construction and repair of the navy has completed his report for the year. The report includes estimates for appropriations for next year, the most important of which is $5,895,679, to be expended on vessels authorized in congress for the increase of the navy. He also asks for $1,500,000 for the general repair of vessels and the purchase of stores and machinery; $528,000 for continuance of work already authorized on the Hartford, the Chicago and other vessels, and $500,000 for two composite sailing vessels. He dwells especially upon the necessity of adequate money for the repair of vessels, else they will lose their efficiency.

He suggests the importance of appropriations sufficient to put the navy yard plants at Portsmouth, N. H., Boston, New York, League Island, Norfolk and Mare Island, Cal., in a condition to meet the demands of the immediate future. Tools especially are badly needed.

Probably the most important part of the report is that devoted to the necessity of increased drydock facilities. Mr. Hichborn notes the fact that there was no dock, government or private, in the country sufficiently large to dock the Indiana preliminary to her trial trip. "If," he says, "such a condition confronts the department in time of peace, it is easily realized how serious a defect it would prove in time of war." He also says that vessels should be kept under course of construction at the three principal navy yards, so as to keep the skilled men employed. The report renews the recommendation previously made of an experimental tank, in which carefully conducted experiments could be made with models in such a way as to anticipate the performance of the completed vessel, these results not being capable of attainment in any other way.

A LIBRARY FOR HOMESTEAD.

Andrew Carnegie Will Build a $400,000 Building and Endow It.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 11.—Homestead will be the first place to come within the plan of Andrew Carnegie to have Greater Pittsburg dotted with libraries, as announced at the dedication of the Pittsburg Carnegie library Tuesday night.
Mr. Carnegie said that he would see that other places in Allegheny county, not yet supplied with libraries, would have them for the asking. Homestead people, after reading this announcement, were not slow to catch on to the offer. So when he visited his big steel plant in that thriving borough a committee was promptly on hand to have a talk with him.
Mr. Carnegie told the committee he would give $400,000 for a free library at Homestead, and work on the construction is not to be delayed. Before the new year gets here a start will be made on the building, and it is intended to have it completed by next fall. The generous donor will also endow the library with a sufficient sum to support it.

Almost Swept Into the Ocean.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The steamer La Gasconne of the French line has arrived from Havre with 548 passengers on board. During the voyage she encountered head winds and rough seas, and on Nov. 7 an enormous sea swept over the starboard bow, carrying the first lieutenant, M. Landegren, from the bridge to the docks below, fortunately without injuring him. The wave smashed the bridge, carried away stanchions, stove in the iron partition beneath the bridge and did other damage about the decks.

MCGAVERN'S SIDE.

He Thinks the Court Did Right in the Jennings Case.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—In reply to the scoring I received at the hands of the police in the Crisis of last Saturday, I beg leave to say a few words in my own defense.

Regarding the story about unfairness, that is absurd. Justice reigned in that court before which the officer stood, and all the influence that the defense could bring to bear could not turn or deter the judge from his duty. They tried by every scheme to blacken my character. The attorney for the defense dubbed me an outlaw and a desperado—a bad man generally. While I may not possess the silver tongue of the orator, the power and weight of his words in debate, I never turned my back on a fellow being in distress, and was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He has the gift of gab, but he could not influence those men in a manner which would reflect upon their character in a way, to say the least, inconsistent. There has been bad blood between Officer Earl and myself for some time, the existence of which accounts for his side of the story. If these officers have no respect for me, let them at least show some respect for those kind friends who interested themselves so readily in my behalf. The slurs of the attorney for the defense did not cause them to weaken one iota. I wish to thank them for their assistance. I do not think it was because it was McGavern, but because they are good, honest men, who wished to see justice done and to discourage any such acts of brutality in the future. To the police force I have little or nothing to say. They imagined they had stumbled upon a man utterly devoid of friends.

JOHN CHARLES MCGAVERN.

Another Word About the Defeat of the Road.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW.—In answer to the communication from "Magog" in your issue of Saturday evening, permit me to say, as a resident of East End, that we are not aware of the "fact" that the people of a Vendale street are paying for their improvement. And that we are aware of the fact that the city is to pay what the law will not permit to be assessed to the property and which will amount to between $1,000 and $2,000 more than the law compels the city to pay, which are street intersections and one fiftieth of entire cost of improvements.

Now permit me to say that we have no complaints to make on that score for they are entitled to all and more improvements than they get, and so do all the suburbs. And we have no complaint to make in regard to the vote. We are always satisfied and willing to try it again.

East End.

MUST PAY UP.

Mayor Gilbert is After Those Who Own Old Fines.

Mayor Gilbert was busily engaged today in sending out notices asking delinquents to call in and pay. It is the custom around city hall to give credit upon approved security where a man is considered safe, but at times the authorities mistake their men, and are compelled to send out statements. The workhouse argument is still in force, and if the victims of the law do not pay up the mayor can send them to the works for a season.

Amusements.

The popular comedian, singer and dancer, Corse Payton, and his excellent company, including Miss Etta Reed, commence a week's engagement at the Grand opera house Monday evening, Nov. 11, in the grand society drama, in five acts, entitled, "The Parisian Princess." This company carries a carload of elaborate scenery, electric and calcium effects; handsome stage decorations, properties and elegant costumes. Notwithstanding the enormous increase in the expense there is no advance in the prices, which remain at 10, 20 and 30 cents. Ladies will be admitted free Monday when accompanied by a paid 30 cent ticket, which must be purchased before 6 p. m. of that day.

Missing The Car.

The horses of express wagons which stand day after day at the passenger station have learned a trick for use when the street cars pass. To stand comfortably with the wagons backed against the curb, the horses have their heads just above a rail of the street car line. They object to standing in any other way, and when a car approaches they simply turn their heads enough to allow it to pass without striking them. They do it every time a car goes by, and all have learned the trick.

Committees Appointed.

The Phoenix and Columbian clubs have appointed committees to look after the matter of a charity ball, and a joint meeting will be held this week. The object is to have the affair as much of a money maker as possible, the proceeds being used for relieving distress in the city.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—L. J. McGhie is a Toronto visitor today.

—F. F. Debolt, of Pittsburg, spent Sunday here with friends.

—Col. J. N. Taylor was a passenger on the morning train east.

—Miss Mame Franks, of Martin's Ferry, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

—T. L. Potts returned from Cleveland this morning after a brief business visit.

—J. A. Davis, of Youngstown, has returned home after a visit with friends in this city.

—George Anderson, who has been visiting here for a week, returned to his home in Pittsburg today.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Chapman are visiting in the city before going to housekeeping in Sistersville.

—Mark Smith and Samuel Meyers, of Philadelphia, are the guests of William Erlanger, Fifth street.

—Mrs. James E. Williams has returned to her home in Rochester after spending a week with friends here.

—Will Murphy, who has been at the home of his father in this city for several months, left today for Pittsburg, where he will look after business matters for a month or two.

Two Deaths.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rough, of College street, died on Saturday night after a long illness, death being hastened by the infirmities of old age. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon interment being made in Long's Run cemetery.

Mrs. Catherine Queen, mother of Tip Queen the well known horseman, died at her home near Salineville on Friday and was buried yesterday. The deceased was well known in this city.

The weather.

The weather for the month is predicted as follows:

From 13th to 16th change for warmer may be expected and then a storm of rain and snow to be followed by cold weather. Changes from 19th to 20th and rain and snow and about 21st to 23d sharp cold may be expected. From 23d to 27th storms of wind and rain, changing to snow and sleet, will sweep from the northwest and cold will follow this period.

Blood Poison Killed Him.

Special to News Review.

LISBON, Nov. 11.—Charles W. Beck, a respected resident of this place and a veteran of the late war, died here today after a short illness. An operation was performed upon him not long ago, and blood poison set in resulting in his death.

For a Dancing Hall.

A movement is on foot in the city that has for its object the leasing of the Brunt Opera house on Market street, and transforming it into a dancing hall with a hard wood floor. A number of well known young men are said to be back of the scheme.

Want A Date.

The manager of the Allegheny football team has written to the team here regretting very much that the grounds were such that they could not play on Saturday. He is anxious for another date, and hopes that the game can be played this week.

Branding The Horse.

A few weeks ago 500 feet of new hose was received at the fire station, and today the force was at work placing the brand of the city on every length. All the hose owned by the city is branded in this way in order that none of it be lost.

A Prosperous Lodge.

The Daughters of America will meet tomorrow evening for the purpose of nominating officers for the year. Six new members will also be received. The lodge is in a prosperous condition, and was never better than at present.

Potatoes are Cheap.

Several farmers were in town today selling potatoes on the streets, and the price asked was lower than the tubers have sold in this city for some time. The peddlers did a thriving business, and soon disposed of their stocks.

The Train Was Late.

The noon train going east was half an hour late today the reason being a defect in the mechanism of the engine. Time was lost this side of Iron-dale, but another engine was secured at Wellsville.
